We are reliably informed that Governor (?) Yardley, of this city, who is one of Honk's steadfast friends, is now in London County with his pockets filled with Honk tickets, with General Bate's name at the head of them, gotten up for the purpose of deceiving the people. Let Rule's friends be on their guard and scan their tickets closely before voting.

From a London County gentleman who was in our office last night, we further learned that the Honk men in that county are proposing to swap off Hawkins and the entire Legislative body in the interest of Honk. They are simply driven to desperation, and will do anything to save their man Honk from the ignominious defeat that they feel is certainly in store for their "little boss."

Governor Ortiz a Refugee.
Tucson, A. T., October 1.—A special to the Star from Benson, A. T., says: Governor Ortiz, of Sonora, has just arrived, with a body guard, from Hermosillo. He is a refugee from the State. He stated that he, with his cabinet and troops, returned to Hermosillo from Guaymas. He disbanded his troops. Last night at a late hour General Reyes' troops, under Mytadans, attacked the house of Governor Ortiz and began firing, killing four of his body guard. Governor Ortiz's men returned the fire, killing five Federal soldiers and wounding others. The railroad officials seeing the danger, tendered Ortiz and his guard a special train to flee for their lives. He crossed the line this morning. He leaves for the City of Mexico to-morrow, via New Orleans. He says he will make an appeal to the Central Government for aid. Antonio Escudero, vice-governor, has assumed gubernatorial authority. Governor Ortiz is much dejected and worn out. Some of his attendant friends say he will never return to Sonora. This ends the revolution.

Shot and Instantly Killed.
PARIS, Ky., November 1.—Burt Scully, a well known horse trainer, was shot and instantly killed last evening, by Hooker Stivers, in this city. The parties lived on adjoining farms, and the women of the two families quarreled about some turkeys. Stivers, a married man, aged 17 years, brother of Hooker, shot the turkeys, which were claimed by Scully's housekeeper. Yesterday Scully returned from the Memphis races, and hearing of the case, and meeting young Stivers in a spring wagon, he took him out and boxed his ears. When Hooker Stivers heard of this he picked up a shotgun in his buggy and drove to town to meet Scully. Upon seeing Scully he called out to him, and Scully started towards him, but when he got within a few feet of Stivers, the latter deliberately shot him dead. Scully, according to the testimony of his nephew, was unarmed. Stivers was arrested.

Iron and Steel Works.
CHICAGO, November 1.—Representatives of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel workers of this district, President Jarrett and the mill owners have been holding another meeting. There was a difference at first but an agreement was finally reached last night on a scale of reduction of 20 per cent compared with the prevailing prices. The workers are, however, firm in demanding that this agreement be subject to a revision May the first. The mill owners are equally firm in demanding that the agreement should cover the entire year, and the conference adjourned without a perfect understanding.

KNOXVILLE, TENN.: THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 2, 1892.

NO. 127.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Trevellick, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in reply to a question by Mr. Sexton, said there was no wide distress nor imminent danger of a famine in western Ireland.

A meeting of the Conservative party was held to-day, Sir Stafford Northcote presiding. He advised the party to fight the closure resolution to the bitter end, and his suggestion was unanimously supported.

LONDON, October 31.—A dispatch from Lyons says the theatres there were fairly filled Sunday evening, notwithstanding the threats of the anarchists. Two other persons suspected of being concerned in the explosion in the cafe there a week ago have been arrested.

The Liberal papers protest against the action of the authorities in specially detaining gun arms to protect the Archbishop.

A correspondent has visited the silk weavers of Croix Rouge. He states that although the men hold advanced political views, they have too much good sense to think that their condition can be bettered by violence.

LYONS, October 31.—Seven anarchists were arrested here yesterday on the charge of manufacturing dynamite.

LONDON, October 31.—A dispatch to the Globe from Dublin says: It is understood that in return for the support of the Parnell party, on the closure question, Mr. Gladstone has undertaken to introduce a fresh scheme of Irish legislation at the next session of Parliament, embracing the further development of the land act, in the direction of the peasant proprietary extension of the franchise, and a scheme for local government.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—In the debate on the closure rules, Mr. Gibson, Conservative, moved the closure amendment in favor of a two-thirds majority. He declared that it was impossible to indicate the sense of the house by a bare majority. He pointed out that Mr. Gladstone had offered to make this concession before the course of business was interrupted last session by the Phoenix park murders. Was he asked, the freedom of the house to be killed by a great crime which gave Mr. Gladstone an excuse for withdrawing the concession.

Mr. Gladstone stated that the government had proposed the closure solely because the business of the House could not proceed without it. He said he was justified in withdrawing the concession offered last session, as the opposition has shown no sign of accepting it. He had formerly offered to accept a two-thirds majority, but believing that experience had shown such a majority to be impracticable, the government would rather abandon their plan than to place a speaker in a position which would lay him open to the charge of partisanship. The government did not think it right to say that if the bill was rejected they would resign. The House must be the judge in regard to the transaction of its own business. But a two-thirds majority would be a deterioration rather than an improvement. In an eloquent peroration in favor of the freedom of speech and the maintenance of the dignity and efficiency of the House Mr. Gladstone asked it to adhere to what sense and principle alike precluded, that the will of the majority should prevail.

ROME, Oct. 31.—The election of Signor Cocchiari, an ardent Radical, to a seat in the Chamber of Deputies in the election last Sunday, is the general topic of conversation. Four months ago Signor Cocchiari was not known to the public. He was recently imprisoned for wounding Angelo Tognetti. A portion of the press expressed disgust at his election, and consider it a disgrace to parliamentary institutions. Signor Cocchiari attacked the Democratic Republic, and was subsequently prosecuted for libel. His fame was increased by an alleged attempt to kill him, and by the government imprisoning him for a long time without allowing him a trial.

LONDON, October 31.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Rome says: The election of Signor Cocchiari has created great sensation. He was lately engaged as a circus rider. He was released from prison on Monday, when he received an ovation from the crowd of people. Although the government appears to have a large majority, the republican contingent is considerably increased.

Cairo, October 31.—Sir Edward Malet, British consul-general, has communicated to the Khedive a telegram from Lord Granville, British foreign secretary, stating that as the settlement of affairs in Egypt involves most complicated questions, it would be unfair to Sir Edward Malet to leave him the entire responsibility, and that, therefore, Lord Dufferin would be sent to Egypt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 31.—The decision of the British government to send Lord Dufferin to Egypt has caused great sensation. The ministers are in conference with the Sultan throughout the night.

DUBLIN, October 31.—At Wicklow Sessions to-day an ejectment writ was granted at the suit of Mr. Parnell, against three tenants, Ebbes, Kavanagh and Brennan, for the non-payment of rent. The farms they occupy are on the Avondale estate of Mr. Parnell, and they owe four years rent, amounting to 179 pounds sterling. A decree for the amount was granted.

MADRID, October 31.—The Democracy Chamber of Deputies had a meeting last evening, Senior Marlos presided. It was decided, despite objections of Senior Warton, to convene the central committee and propose the signing of the Marshal Sessors, programme. Senior Warton and other deputies and directors of the Democratic organ, Progress, decided to convoke no declaration of a monarchical character.

MADRID, October 31.—The political agitation is causing profound sensation in Spain, and threatens to divide the Liberals into two hostile parties.

LONDON, November 1.—To-day is the regular semi-annual settling at the Bank of England, and consequently is a holiday at the bank and on the stock exchange.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The collection of customs at Corpus Christi, Texas, has been directed to use all efforts to pass mails at Peru, a railroad station between Corpus Christi and Laredo. It has been detained there by action of the county authorities of Texas. Under the laws of that State the county judge may organize a quarantine. This was done early in the season, and in consequence, whenever the treasury department removed its cordons, the County authorities renewed it.

The local papers here will publish to-morrow morning an interview with Robert G. Ingersoll in reply to the statements made in the report of Governor Wells to the Department of Justice, upon the alleged attempts to bribe the Star Route jurors.

The trial of A. C. Sotelo, indicted for the murder of his brother, A. M. Sotelo, at the Republican office on the 9th of February last, was continued in the Criminal Court this morning, before Justice Wylie. The requisite six men to complete the jury were secured without much trouble. Eleven of the jury are white and one colored, the latter being a local Methodist minister. Assistant District Attorney H. T. Toggart opened for the government. The defense reserved their opening. After examining a number of witnesses, the court adjourned.

It is estimated that the reduction in the public debt for the month of October is about $15,250,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The following telegram was sent by the Attorney-General this afternoon: DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1, 1892.—To A. B. Salom Byrnes, U. S. Marshall, Charleston, S. C., and S. W. Maiken, U. S. Attorney, Columbia, S. C.: The attention of this department has been called, by a communication from parties at Lancaster Court House, S. C., to the probability that the recent homicide there will tend to prevent a full and free ballot at the approaching election in that county. Report to me the situation, and spare no pains in the due enforcement of laws therein at that election for a member of Congress. (Signed) BREWSTER, Attorney-General.

Yellow Fever.
PENSACOLA, Fla., October 31.—Fifteen new cases of yellow fever and four deaths are reported today. Two of the deaths were outside of the city, twin children of Mr. Nix, on the Perdido. Mr. Nix had already lost two children by the fever. The weather has been showery, but is still very warm.

Captain Billson, of the British bark Rhoda, which is captained in the harbor on September 10th, and two citizens of Pensacola, left here this morning to go by a special car, completely isolated from other passengers, to Louisville, Ky., beyond the bounds of Southern quarantine. This privilege of exodus costs the party $100 in addition to the usual fare for passage.

The bark Torraine, Captain Bennett, from Cape Town, at the bark Emma, Captain Alsen, from Hull, the bark Ellen, Captain Albino, from Hull, and the bark Aurora, Captain Lafayette, from Havana, all arrived at the quarantine station to-day.

Brownsville, Texas, October 31.—Jos. Hopkins, Jr., only son of Postmaster Hopkins, died to-day of consumption. His funeral was the first attended by Americans since the beginning of the epidemic.

Mr. Morrow has just returned to the city from a thorough inspection of the cordon. He reports good health all along the line. The weather is warm.

Star Route Bribery Cases.
WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—The first of the Star Route jury bribery cases, that against Arthur Payne, colored, came up in the Police Court at noon to-day. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and the case went to trial.

Juror Wm. K. Brown was the first witness and was examined at length with regard to Payne's alleged attempt to bribe him. He admitted that on October 12th he made affidavit relating thereto, which is known as the Ingersoll affidavit, but denied that Falls' name was mentioned in it. When the defendant was exhibited to him, containing Falls' name in interlineation, he said he thought it had been inserted after he swore to the affidavit, which was in Colonel Ingersoll's handwriting. Some other parts of the affidavit were, he admitted, untrue.

At the request of the defense, further examination of Brown was continued until to-morrow, in order to allow them to obtain, by subpoena, the attorney-general, the affidavits collected by Special Counsel Wells.

Key West, Oct. 31.—The cable steamer, Duchess, of Marlborough, having completed the repairs to the Havana cable, returned here to-day.

MADRID, November 1.—An official dispatch from Manilla says 200 sailors were drowned during the recent cyclone.

THE CAMPAIGN.

CAPTAIN RULE AT FORK RIVER, CAMPBELL COUNTY.

GRAND OVATION TENDERED THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE.

The Ladies Turn Out in Force—Floral Decorations—Immense Concourse of People.

Mr. Rule's Speech, &c., &c.

FORK RIVER, CAMPBELL CO.,

October 27, 1892.

MR. EDITOR: Nothing has ever been seen in this part of the country to equal the ovation given Capt. Wm. Rule here on yesterday. He was met by a crowd of over five hundred a mile distant and escorted, with flying banners to the place set apart for the speaking. Among that joyous throng I noticed in particular a certain prominent minister of the gospel who has heretofore been a Honk man, but who, thank God, has now come out on the side of Rule and the right. Arriving at the place set apart for the speaking, we found a large number of ladies awaiting the coming of Mr. Rule. The large church here was beautifully festooned with flowers and evergreens which were tastefully arranged by the fair ladies who graced the occasion with their presence.

In the vast throng assembled here we noticed quite a number of ex-Federal soldiers who had served along side of Captain Rule in the late war, and wherever you find one of the Captain's old regiment you may know he is a Rule man; for a braver soldier than Captain Rule made no man.

Captain Rule was introduced in a very pleasant way by Mr. George Graham, who is an enthusiastic supporter and a great admirer of our candidate. Captain Rule spoke for over two hours and a half, and during that entire time simply held the crowd spell bound. His speech did not abound in dirty anecdotes or coarse abuse, but it was sound and logical, and had a telling effect. He showed up the disgraceful record of his opponent in a way that sent conviction to the heart of every one who heard him—and there was not a man present but went away from there fully convinced of the truthfulness of every charge against the Honk candidate. Mr. Rule held of how Honk got into that caboose at Washington, of how he absented himself from his proper place in Congress, of how he received that fraudulent pension that he is now drawing from the government, and also Honk's hypocrisy in regard to claims made against him.

Mr. Rule closed with an eloquent tribute to the ladies present, thanking them for their presence and the beautiful flowers that they presented to the heart of every one who stepped from the stand amid the joyous shouts of the assembled throng. This was the only time that day that the ladies were so prominently featured.

Mr. Rule, who will only do her duty on next Tuesday, Campbell County will certainly do hers, by giving William Rule a handsome majority.

—A REPUBLICAN.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE SPEAKING AT FORK RIVER.

MR. EDITOR: Arriving on the ground set apart for the speaking, I found a large number of ladies and gentlemen of Anderson and Campbell Counties engaged in decorating the church, preparatory to receiving Captain Rule. And behold, I saw there a man who had heretofore been a loud-mouthed Honk, but who has now come out on the side of Rule, a better man and a stronger Republican than Honk. About 12 o'clock a large number of horsemen started on the old banner flying over them they went forward and met him at Squire Grant's, where they gave their rousing cheer. And our valiant leader, and thereupon they escorted him to the stand where he was to speak. And let me say that there was in the throng of the party the only preacher in Campbell County who has stood out for Honk, but when the word was given to cheer I looked and saw said preacher swinging his fist around his head and saw him joining in the shout of joy that then and there went up for Rule. The reason I noticed him so close by was because I knew he had been for Honk and I wanted to see whether he really had turned over for Rule. If you could only have been here you would have seen where the ladies and the good people are and who they are for.

After Captain Rule shook hands with quite a number of those present, he was introduced by Mr. George Graham in a few appropriate words. He proceeded and made a masterly speech. He spoke some two hours and showed up his opponent in a decent, forcible way, and successfully refuted the charges made against him that he was a bolter from the Republican party. He said that he had invited Honk to come to the front and eat him up, as Honk's friends had boasted Honk would do; but instead of this Honk had positively declined to meet him (Rule) in debate. There were about five hundred people present, but I would not be at all surprised to see the number stated at 16 or 20 in the Knoxville Republican.

Campbell is all right for Rule, and don't you forget it. Yours, J. H. A.

Assigned.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 1.—Myers & Marcus, wholesale dealers in dry goods and boots and shoes, report their assets at $327,000, of which $50,000 are bad open accounts. Their liabilities are $220,000; preferred credits $94,000. Charles L. Bornheim, of New York, is one of the assignees. There are $104,000 in doubtful and bad accounts. In stock, good accounts and bills receivable, there are $22,000.

Good Advice.

You will prevent and cure the greater part of the ills that afflict mankind in this or any section, if you keep your stomach, liver and kidneys in perfect working order. There is no medicine known that does this as surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic. It will keep your blood rich and pure, and give you good health at little cost. See other column.

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 31.—The Grand Lodge of Masons of the State met at Macon to-day. There was a large attendance. Grand Master J. T. Wright made an address.

A World of Good.

One of the most popular medicines now before the American public, is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other, but it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old-fashioned bone-set tonics, that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right, try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

MADRID, November 1.—An official dispatch from Manilla says 200 sailors were drowned during the recent cyclone.

A PLAY BETWEEN HENRI GIBSON AND JOHN HOOK.

SCENE 1ST.—GIBSON TO HOOK.

Assist me, dear John, to proclaim The wonders of thy father's name. Ten thousand foes along our way Arise to win the coming day.

The battle, oh, do not give o'er, And help from abroad improve. Chicanery work will not be done, Till the race is entirely run.

Two thousand dollars pass your good, For all you ever have withstood, And sixteen hundred is enough For the amount I have to puff.

If Brother Honk should miss this time, Dear John, we would lose many a dime. Oh, is it likely? car it be, Such fate is for you and me?

Oh, may we rise each autumn morn, With joyousness, glee or forlorn, And send by every passing mail, Accounts of the old pizen tale. If all the end do not fully meet, A most glorious defeat, Beyond that of any candidate Throughout our own and every State.

His dying requiem be sung, In district, too, by every tongue, To give the old man another drum, Couldn't he think of another sham?

(Go out to the saloon.) G. L. S.
